Gervais Entrapment Confession - out-of-New Orleans play

Glad to get the Chron and Exam coverage. Take it LA Times had nothing or you had not gotten to that yet. Only stories I've heard of. What is fascinating is that the former departmental not local deputy chief organized crime section was in New Orleans to be interviewed the next day and that he said there was no need of Gervais for a conviction. Is that why Garrison was charged with nothing not attributed to Gervais? Of course, it is possible that the AP(Chron 5/2?) didn't credit another source, like WNL, which could have interviewed Tom Kennelly outside N.O. and aired it there. I think this may still wind up a la Shaw, with Garrison filing an enormous suit for personal damages against everyone from Mitchell to Gallinghouse -and in New Orleans, collecting. This, in turn, makes the Shaw civil suit against him more important.
